

NEW EVENING MENU COMING REAL SOON!

Hey!

Thanks for checking out our evening menu!

We're launching a new evening menu on Friday 11th January 2019. We're really excited about it; you're going to love it!

In the meantime, on Friday & Saturday evenings (that's when we do evening service) we'll be running one-off menus each night, comprising some the new items & some of the old classics. There'll be something for everyone: healthy, indulgent, gluten-free options, big eats, little nibbles. And all really tasty. The one down-side is that you can't view it online now.

Forgive us for this & we can nonetheless promise you a brilliant evening, as usual, at your favourite vegan spot in town!

Catch you real soon

Ant & Zoe
